

Gary and Drenda Keesee are television hosts, authors, international speakers, financial experts, entrepreneurs, and pastors who have made it their mission in life to reach and care for the hurting and the lost and to help people win in life, especially in the areas of faith, family, and finances.

Together, Gary and Drenda have created and operated several successful businesses and are the founders of Faith Life Now, which produces two television programs— Fixing the Money Thing and Drenda—hosts worldwide conferences, and provides practical resources. They also pastor Faith Life Church in New Albany, Ohio.